

KIMBERLEY STATIONS AND WILDERNESS CAMPS

Voyages El Questro

Experience the ultimate Kimberley adventure by staying at one of the wilderness camps or working stations dotted throughout the Kimberley region.

Accommodation in wilderness camps is usually in permanent safari tents with share or private facilities, while stations offer a range of accommodation, from safari tents to a guest room in the homestead.

Wilderness camps are the ideal place to stay when travelling along the Gibb River Road. Located between Broome and Kununurra are Mornington and Imintji Wilderness Camps, while further north are Ungolan Wilderness Camp near Mitchell Plateau, Marunbabidi on the Kalumburu Road – providing access to the King Edward River, and Bush Camp at Faraway Bay, a truly unique retreat located overlooking the Timor Sea. Within Purnululu National Park is the Bungle Bungle Wilderness Lodge.

Two special outback station experiences can be found at Home Valley Station and El Questro, each accessible from Kununurra and the location for some of the filming of 'Australia' the movie.

MUST SEE AND DO

- Take a walk to Cathedral Gorge in the Bungle Bungles
- Relax at Zebedee Thermal Springs at El Questro
- Explore the gorges along the Gibb River Road
- Visit some of the locations of Australia the movie at Home Valley Station and El Questro

Mornington Wilderness Camp
