Known as the eastern gateway to the Kimberley, Kununurra is the best place to stay for access to a number of the Kimberley's most well known attractions. Purnululu National Park is a scenic light plane or helicopter flight from Kununurra, where you can spend the day exploring the Bungle Bungles, or stay overnight at a wilderness camp within the park. Scenic flights from Kununurra will also take you over the largest man-made lake in Australia; Lake Argyle, and the largest open-cut diamond mine in the world; the Argyle Diamond Mine. The Ord River is another popular local attraction and is home to an amazing variety of flora and fauna.

Within Kununurra you'll find a number of art galleries showcasing local and Aboriginal artwork, as well as diamond showrooms selling Argyle diamonds.

El Questro Wilderness Park, Home Valley Station and the Gibb River Road can all be accessed from Kununurra.

9 Day Experience the Kimberley

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Helicopter transfer ■ 4 day trek through Carr Boyd Range
- Overnight private island stay ■ 3 day Ord River canoe trip through Carlton Gorge

Day 1: Kununurra

Arrive in Kununurra and be transferred to your accommodation. Join your fellow adventurers tonight for an evening meet and greet and program brief.

Day 2: Kununurra to Carr Boyd Ranges by helicopter

Today will be your first taste of the magnificence of the Kimberley. After breakfast enjoy a helicopter flight into the Carr Boyd Ranges. After setting up camp, the rest of the day is free to swim, fish and relax. (BLD)

Day 3: Carr Boyd Ranges Trek

An early morning start. The walk begins through the first of many gorges as you follow the river to its headwaters. Set up overnight camp alongside a waterhole. (BLD)

Day 4: Carr Boyd Ranges Trek

The trek continues along the river until your climb over the range. Magnificent waterfalls set the scene for the overnight camp. (BLD)

Day 5: Carr Boyd Ranges Trek

As you make your way down the escarpment to the watercourse below, pass through ancient palm trees and massive paperbark stands. (BLD)

Day 6: Carr Boyd Ranges to Lake Argyle

Complete the trekking component of the trip, then make your way to the shores of Lake Argyle to await the boat pick up. Tonight, set up camp on our own island and watch the magnificent sunset from the private beach. (BLD)

Day 7: Ord River Canoeing

Enjoy a tour of the lake before participating in a canoeing skills demonstration and getting some practice in for the canoeing leg. After a full day's canoeing down the Ord River, relax at a beautiful overnight camp on a white sand beach. (BLD)

Day 8: Ord River Canoeing

Another day of paddling down the Ord; today you will be awed by the spectacular Carlton Gorge. Enjoy majestic cliff faces and beautiful cascading waterfalls before moving to the last campsite. (BLD)

Day 9: Ord River to Kununurra

The final day provides a short, easy paddle to the end point, before a boat transfer back to Kununurra. Overnight in Kununurra. (BL)
